Several barbers secure sanitary service satisfactorily for you at Ross' Depot square barber shop.

Mrs. T. A. Thompson and son, Allen, are visiting her sister in Graniteville for a few weeks, during the absence of her husband, who is employed in St. Albans.

The People's Shoe Store will give a discount of 10 per cent on all lines of footwear to Barre customers, as well as out-of-town customers, during fare-refunding week.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Waterman, 21 Camp street, Friday afternoon at 2:30, with Mrs. Bradley as hostess. Flower mission day is to be observed and members please bring flowers.

Umberto Compara, who came to Barre about six months ago to work in the stone industry, left last evening for New York, where he will visit relatives for a few weeks before going to his home in Genoa.

Three candidates for the vacancy at the fire station were examined by the aldermanic fire committee in the council chamber at city hall last evening. It is stated that all three applicants attained a high mark in the tests applied under the civil service rules. At the council meeting next Tuesday evening Mayor Gordon will be asked to select one of the applicants for the vacancy.

Atty. John W. Gordon has been engaged to deliver the address at the commercial graduation exercises at Goddard seminary next Tuesday evening. Rev.
V. E. Tomlinson of Worcester, Mass., will preach the annual sermon to the graduates Sunday forenoon and Atty.
Stanley C. Wilson of Chelsea, a graduate of Goddard in the class of 1896, will be the orator at the alumni literary exercises Thursday morning. It was announced to-day that Miss Ethel Hamilton of East Orange, who is an instructor in the public schools of Wayland, Mass., will give a reading at the literary exercises.

Alfred Davis of this city and James Riley of Sheldon, who have completed the commercial course at Goddard seminary, have gone to Proctor, where each has secured a good position in the office of the Vermont Marble company. It was stated at the seminary to-day that all members of the teacher training class who are to receive their certificates this year have been engaged to teach next fall. The class includes a number of young women and one young man, who have had observation work in the city schools, in addition to the training at the seminary. The average weekly pay to be received by the class members is $12.

ber.

Edson L. Lander returned to his home in Lebanon, N. H., this forenoon, after passing several days at the home of his father, George W. Lander of South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Hutchinson and two daughters, Misses Florence and Mabel Hutchinson, of Park street, have returned to the city after visiting relatives in Northfield.

out-of-town customers, during fare-re-
funding week.

Mrs. Mary Morey, Miss Nellie Morey and Dr. Evert J. Stone of Sharon, who were in the city yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Harriet M. Percival to David S. Evans of Portland, Me., returned to their home by automobile last evening.

A carload of heavy draft horses was consigned from Barre to-day to W. D.
Quimby of Boston, the well known candy manufacturer, who is to use the horses in his teaming business. The car left the city over the Central Vermont railroad, after having been consigned by H.
C. Leonard.

Chief C. B. Gladding of the fire department, who has been a patient at the City hospital since receiving a fracture of the lower left limb in an automobile accident last April, was removed to his home on South Main street yesterday in an ambulance. The chief is making good progress toward recovery, although he will not be able to be out of doors for some time.

Herman Potter of Williamstown has purchased of J. A. Denno of Malden, Mass., his cottage house at 73 South Main street, a deed registering the sale having been recorded to-day. It is stated that a nominal price was named in the transaction. Mr. and Mrs. Denno, who formerly resided in Barre, are to return to their home in Malden to-morrow, after spending several days with friends in the city.

Miss Mary A. Walker, whose approaching marriage to James V. Leung has been announced, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Walker of Highland avenue last evening by a number of young women. The shower was wholly unexpected by Miss Walker, who was ushered into a circle of her friends at the Walker home before she realized the real import of the gathering. The prospective bride was the recipient of a variety of gifts and after an impromptu program of music and readings, dainty refreshments were served.

Merle's academy club, which has occupied a suite of rooms in the Scampini building for the past two years, was effectively disbanded last evening, when 20 members of the organization and their guests tendered a farewell banquet to their officers. The president, John Tomasi, and the secretary, Charles Sassi, are to leave the city next week for Old Orchard, Me., there to be employed during the summer. After a substantial dinner there was an informal program of singing and speechmaking. It is proposed to reorganize the club in the fall.

PLAINFIELD.

Until further notice the Nellie Gill Players will visit Plainfield Saturday night, instead of Monday night, as formerly. Not only does this bring the company to town on a more popular day, but they will be seen here in their last, instead of their first, performance of each play, thus giving Plainfield the advantage of seeing the Players in each bill after they have been playing it for two weeks. See "The Parish Priest" Saturday night.—adv.
